

GUIDE MARCHING SONG –

Centenary verses by Eileen R Tomlin

Who are these? Offering friendship's hand,
For the Guiding game is still the same,
As it spreads through every land,
A centenary of fun,
never mind the rain or sun,
And we're travelling on with a cheerful song,
And a smile for everyone,
Chor: We are Guides, all Guides,
And wherever you may find us,
We've a hundred years behind us,
And a helping hand besides,
For in need or danger,
you'll never be a stranger,
For from Rainbow Guide to Ranger,
We are Guides, all Guides.

Who are these? Travelling far and wide,
And wherever you go, you'll always know
You're sure to meet a Guide,
With our Guiding flag unfurled,
We will work to Change the World,
For we try each day to find a way
Of making a happier world,
Chor: We are Guides, all Guides,
As we join this happy chorus
Adventure lies before us
And new challenges besides,
For in need or danger,
you'll never be a stranger,
For from Rainbow Guide to Ranger,
We are Guides, all Guides.
